

ISSA

International Securities Services Association

Andrew Luscombe, Credit Suisse, elected to the Board of the International Securities Services Association

Switzerland | London | Singapore, 16 December 2020:

Nicola Kane has announced that she will step down as Credit Suisse's ISSA Board member at the end of 2020. Phil Brown the Chair of the ISSA Board thanked Nicola on behalf of ISSA for her contribution and guidance during her tenure.

Credit Suisse has proposed the election of Andrew Luscombe to succeed Nicola as the new Board member. His nomination has been unanimously welcomed and approved by the ISSA Board.

Commenting on her experience, Nicola said «I am a great believer in ISSA and the contribution it makes to the financial services industry. I am proud that Credit Suisse and I remain active supporters of the association's work, and that Andrew Luscombe will take over my position as the bank's representative.»

Colin Parry the ISSA CEO said «I have met Andrew previously during my working career. I know that he is an excellent appointment and look forward to benefiting from his insights and knowledge as a Board member.»

Andrew is Credit Suisse's Head of Group Operations Asia Pacific, based in Singapore. In addition, he is the Global Head of Market-facing Operations and Network within Group Operations. This gives him an excellent grounding in the topics of interest to ISSA's members. He joined Credit Suisse in Hong Kong in February 2001 and has held management positions in Information Technology, Operations and Operational Risk, based in Hong Kong, Singapore and India. Andrew holds a degree in Applied Computing and an MBA from the University of Reading, UK.